

Mastering Motherhood⁺

Titus Woman Job Description

The goal of the Titus Woman role is to provide a mentor, sounding board, and source of wisdom to the moms who attend Mastering Motherhood. A Titus Woman should be someone who has a deep and abiding walk with the Lord, the benefit of hindsight as a mother, a compassionate heart, and a willingness to share love and encouragement.

Titus Woman Position Responsibilities:

- Serve as a mentor, a woman as described in Titus 2, to the moms in your small group:
 - Through notes, phone calls, remembering prayer requests, a comforting hand on a shoulder, etc., let the women in your small group know there is someone willing to love and mentor them
 - Specifically, love and nurture your small group leaders setting a standard for how they should reach out to the moms in their group both inside and outside of the meeting
- Attend weekly Thursday meetings from 9:15 to 11:35
- Participate in small group discussion:
 - Be willing to share life's joys and struggles with the group
 - Assist small group leaders in controlling conversation so that no one is put on the spot, belittled, or left feeling harshly judged
 - Help give the moms the bigger picture so they can put their problems in perspective
 - If both of the small group leaders are unable to make the meeting, act in their place
- You were picked for your wisdom; please don't hesitate to share it!
- Participate in prayer
- Set an example to those uncomfortable or unfamiliar with prayer
- Participate in social events when possible or appropriate
- Make yourself available for a mom to confide in you
- Assist in incorporating newcomers and unsaved moms into your group
- Participate in book selection
- Reviewing the book for doctrinal alignment before it is submitted as your group's selection
- Attend the MM steering committee twice a year per the meeting plan and share your thoughts and hopes for Mastering Motherhood
